Dear Prospective Cub Scout Parent,

The child on the front of this invitation is a friend of your child, and a Cub Scout, and has personally invited your child to join Cub Scouts with them. In Cub Scouts your child will have lots of fun, learn new things and make new friends. But Cub Scouts is much more than that, it is fun - with a purpose. Everything they will do in Cub Scouts - ceremonies, earn awards, sports, games and crafts, will be done with a specific purpose in mind.

The reasons parents want their child to get into Cub Scouts probably aren't the same as why they will want to join. Take a look at the 12 Core Values Cub Scouting strives to teach:

Citizenship	Honesty
Compassion	Perseverance
Cooperation	Positive Attitude
Courage	Resourcefulness
Faith	Respect
Health and Fitness	Responsibility

Please come find out what all the fun is all about! You and your child are invited to learn more about Cub Scouts at the date, time and location listed on the front side of this card. If you like what you learn, you can join that night.

2. Invitations - Each Scout will receive two invitations to give to their friends, which lists the date, time and location of the next meeting where the friends can sign up for Cub Scouts. The leader needs to help the Cub Scout fill in his name at the top of the card (so the parents of the friends will know that their son is being invited by a friend), or do it for him ahead of time. The date, time and location of the next meeting also need to be filled out by the Cub Scout or a leader. The Cub Scouts should be instructed to give the two invitations to the best friends that they listed on the front of the card tomorrow at school, or the next time they see them.
