Dear Prospective Boy Scout Parent,

The boy on the front of this invitation is a friend of your son, and a Scout, and has personally invited your son to join Scouts with him. In Boy Scouts your son will have lots of fun, learn new things and make new friends. But Boy Scouts is much more than that, it is fun - with a purpose. Everything he will do in Boy Scouts - ceremonies, earn badges, sports, games and crafts, will be done with a specific purpose in mind.

The reasons parents want their son to get into Boy Scouts probably aren't the same as why he will want to join. Take a look at the 12 points of the Scout Law:

Trustworthy	Obedient
Loyal	Cheerful
Helpful	Thrifty
Friendly	Brave
Courteous	Clean
Kind	Reverent

Please come find out what all the fun is all about! You and your son are invited to learn more about Boy Scouts at the date, time and location listed on the front side of this card. If you like what you learn, you can join that night.

2. Invitations - Each Scout will receive two invitations to give to his friends, which lists the date, time and location of the next meeting where the friends can sign up for Boy Scouts. The Boy Scout should fill in his name at the top of the card so the parents of the friends will know that their son is being invited by a friend. The date, time and location of the next meeting also need to be filled out by the Scout or a leader. The Boy Scouts should be instructed to give the two invitations to the best friends that they listed on the front of the card the next day at school, or the next time they see them.
