

Who should attend?: This weekend camping event is intended for Scout Troops and Packs. It is a great time for Troops to host Webelos who may wish to consider joining their unit.

Camping: Units should reserve their own tent site or cabin for the weekend. Troops and Packs can stay Friday and/or Saturday nights

Meals: Scout units provide all of their own meals and cooking. This is a great opportunity for scouts to do meal planning and cooking requirements for advancement. Compete in the "Chopped Cooking Contest" for Saturday supper.

Service Project: Each unit is encouraged to participate in at least one hour of service such as trail maintenance.

Day Hike and Weather Merit Badge: Scouts can hike from Base Camp to the Blue Hill Weather Station and participate in learning activities to fulfill the Weather Merit Badge. Scouts will need to have one buddy from their unit and at least one adult leader from participating units. Sign up at the Cracker Barrel on Fri. evening or on Sat. morning. Jeff Anderson will lead the merit badge activity.

Registration and Costs: $10 per troop registration. Every scout will use their Adventure Card to cover access to Base Camp activities. Units must reserve their own cabin or tent site. Troops and patrols will manage their own food expenses. Please register by September 8, 2023 here: <https://form.jotform.com/231923525832153>

Fun Competition: District judges will hold some fun events to encourage patrol creativity.

"Chopped Cooking Contest": Two weeks before arrival, patrols will receive a list of
